

CA 1

MI

-Z111

Ref. Sec. P
Government Publications

DEPOSITORY LIBRARY MATERIAL

CA 1

MI

-Z111

Publications of the Canadian Citizenship Branch

3 1761 11637743 3

TOOLS FOR CITIZENS

PROGRAM AIDS:

---

CITIZEN

A periodical published five times a year as an aid to program conveners and leaders of all kinds of organizations and groups that are active in the field of citizenship. Contains ideas for citizenship programs and projects, and feature articles on many aspects of citizenship, intergroup relations and immigrant integration.

Available free to those directly responsible for citizenship programs, on request to the Citizenship Branch. Also available by subscription from the Queen's Printer, Ottawa, at $1.50 a year.

THE ART OF PROGRAM PLANNING

A series of articles on program planning originally published in Citizen are assembled here in one booklet. They are: Keeping Your Eye on the Program Goal, It's My Turn to Plan the Meeting, and Planning for Action. The final article is on Films as a Program Aid. 24 pp.

CELEBRATING DOMINION DAY

Designed to assist community leaders plan celebrations for the First of July. In addition to program suggestions, titles of articles include: Looking Towards the Centennial, Things Canadians Share in Common, A Country Grows Up, Films for Dominion Day. 51 pp.

THE COMMUNITY AND THE NEWCOMER

The problems immigrants face and the way people can help them adjust to life in Canada are discussed in this pamphlet, which is a reprint of an article previously published in Citizen. Includes questions for discussion and a film list. 8 pp.

CITIZENSHIP PROJECTS

Stories of over twenty projects previously described in Citizen. 72 pp.

CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP SERIES

The booklets in this series are available free to newcomers and also to voluntary organizations for use in organized study and discussion groups. For any other purpose they are available from the Queen's Printer, Ottawa. Current prices are listed below.

OUR LAND

Part I of this short geography of Canada deals with the geographical divisions of the country and the main lakes, rivers and islands. Part II is concerned with the political geography of the ten provinces and two territories. 50 pp. 35 cents.

OUR HISTORY

The history of Canada is told briefly under the main headings of exploration, settlement and political development with a final chapter on Canada in international affairs. 78 pp. 50 cents.

OUR SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT

An outline of the structure and function of government in Canada at the federal, provincial and municipal levels. An introductory chapter touches briefly on basic freedoms, the rule of the majority and confederation. The final chapter deals with the judiciary. 47 pp. 35 cents.

OUR RESOURCES

This booklet traces briefly the economic development of the major natural resources in Canada from early times to the present day. Separate chapters deal with agriculture, fisheries, forestry, manufacturing, mining and water power. 139 pp. 50 cents.

THE ARTS IN CANADA

A short survey of Canadian art from its beginning in the late seventeenth century down to the present day. The greatest emphasis is placed on painting but some attention is also paid to architecture, sculpture and the allied arts. 48 illustrations, 16 in colour. 120 pp. $1.50.

Unless otherwise indicated, these program aids are available in Ottawa or to Regional Offices of the Branch listed on the back cover.

CANADA AT THE CROSSROADS

A series of five articles on bilingualism and biculturalism that originally appeared in Citizen. The articles are: The Quiet Revolution in Quebec, The "Third Group" Looks at Bilingualism and Biculturalism, A Challenge in Citizenship, A Brief Look at Bilingualism, and How Other Countries Approach Bilingualism. Includes discussion questions and a film list. 48 pp.

CITIZENSHIP PROJECTS AMONG INDIANS

A collection of articles reprinted from Citizen, dealing with the Indian Eskimo Association, leadership training programs for Indians, and the Indian-Metis Friendship Centres of Winnipeg and The Pas. 37 pp.

PROGRAM SUGGESTIONS FOR CITIZENSHIP DAY

This booklet explains the purpose of Citizenship Day and offers suggestions for community ceremonies, programs for an organization or group meeting, and school observances on Citizenship Day. 12 pp.

CITIZENSHIP IN A DEMOCRACY

Various aspects of citizenship and the democratic process are treated in five articles previously published in Citizen: The Citizen in a Democracy, Public Opinion in a Democracy, Voluntary Organizations and the Immigrant, All Those in Favour? and Some Characteristics of a Responsible Citizen. 40 pp.

THE COMMUNITY

A series of articles previously printed in Citizen. Chapter headings are: The Invisible Community, The Community in Space, The Community and Its People, The Community and Its Institutions, Looking at Our Own Communities; with discussion questions. 31 pp.

ble free on request to the Canadian Citizenship Branch back page.

---

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT PREJUDICE AND DISCRIMINATION

This is a study guide intended to provide background information on the nature, causes and effects of prejudice and discrimination, for the use of study groups. Discussion questions, suggested films and a reading list are included. 52 pp.

IT'S UP TO US

A program guide on human rights for Human Rights Day and other occasions. Includes an outline of the history and significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and of human rights in Canada. Lists of films and source material on human rights. Illus. 48 pp.

THE CANADIAN WOMAN TODAY

A review of the position Canadian women have attained fifty years after achieving the right to vote and sit in Parliament. Their place in employment, business and the professions, their role in public life and in voluntary organizations are outlined. 16 pp.

CULTURAL CONTRIBUTIONS OF NEWCOMERS TO CANADA

How newcomers have contributed to the performing arts, stage design and the visual arts in Canada. Three articles reprinted from Citizen. 35 pp.

LINKS WITH THE PAST

Some outstanding Canadians of the past—The Casavant family, Sir Casimir Gzowski, William and Sir Charles Saunders, Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless, and Alphonse Desjardins—are described in this booklet. 36 pp.

THE WHY AND HOW OF GROUP DISCUSSION

Why is group discussion popular? When is it used? How is it done? This booklet supplies the answers. 8 pp.

CITIZENSHIP BRANCH REGIONAL OFFICES

Western Region

VANCOUVER, B.C.
325 Granville Street.

SASKATOON, SASK.
Room 306,
London Building.

EDMONTON, ALTA.
10534-100 Street.

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA
Federal Building.

Central Region

TORONTO, ONTARIO
55 St. Clair Ave. East.

HAMILTON, ONTARIO
150 Main Street West.

LONDON, ONTARIO
Dominion Public Bldg.
457 Richmond Street.

SUDBURY, ONTARIO
Room 325,
Federal Building.

Eastern Region

MONTREAL, QUEBEC
Room 1025,
305 Dorchester Street W.

QUEBEC, QUEBEC
Palais Montcalm,
Room 24 "B",
St. Jean Street.

MONCTON, N.B.
Dominion Public Bldg.,
Main Street.

HALIFAX, N.S.
P.O. Box 129.

Canadian Citizenship Branch
Department of Citizenship and Immigration
Ottawa, 1966

Cat. No. Ci 51-1966